PV-Navi – Your Compass for Photovoltaics

PV-Navi.de offers in-depth, independent information on photovoltaics – understandable, up-to-date, and clearly laid out. Its focus is on an event calendar with over 400 events from across Germany – from trade fairs to online presentations to seminars, easily filterable by region and format. The platform also offers a comprehensive overview of funding opportunities, a PV ABC with over 500 terms, and over 3,500 links to specialist portals, tools, and studies. The daily "5vor12" news focuses on positive stories from the energy transition. Suppliers can also use PV-Navi to specifically present their events and offerings.
