Golfstrom Energy at Intersolar Europe 2025: Empowering the Skilled Trades through Smart Financing

Golfstrom, a Munich-based startup, is presenting its digital financing solutions for solar and heat pump projects at Intersolar Europe 2025 (May 7–9, Hall C5, Booth 5.170B).

The company enables local installation businesses to offer simple, paperless financing directly during consultations – with immediate approval and no upfront capital required.

With tools like solar leasing and heat pump financing, Golfstrom supports tradespeople in accelerating sales and reducing barriers for their customers.

Founded with the mission to drive the energy transition from within the skilled trades, Golfstrom strengthens the role of local installers in delivering affordable, clean energy.
